Costeaux Honored with Harvest Fair's Top Awards

Costeaux French Bakery swept the 2008 Sonoma County Harvest Fair Awards Night on Saturday, September 27th for Best of Show for Multigrain Batard and Ciabatta Loaf taking top honors for both the Professional French Bread and Professional Specialty Bread categories in the annual competition for the third consecutive year. Additional honors for Double Gold and Gold breads were awarded for French Baguette, Rustic Baguette, Walnut Baguette, Multigrain Baguette, French Country Loaf, Kalamata Olive Batard, Rustic Batard, Sour Dinner Roll, Epi, Sweet Greek Seeded, Sweet French, Sweet Twist Seeded, and Morning Bun. Since its first Harvest Fair Sweepstakes for sourdough bread in 1981, Costeaux has been a consistent award winner year after year.

This is the third consecutive Best of Show award in a row for the Bakery's Multigrain Batard. The medium sized loaf with a hearty crust and moist center is made from nine grains – cracked wheat, barley, corn, millet, oats, rye, ritalale, brown rice, soy and flax seed - flavored with rich molasses.
